

NANCY NEWS

Stephen Bradnock

Quick update on the Managers post.

The interview process concluded with the appointment of Stephen Bradnock (Steve), who will be known to many of you from his former involvement with the Trust.

Steve will begin working with us from mid January and in the meantime Val has kindly offered to continue in the role of Interim Manager.

The Trustees would like to thank everyone for their involvement in the interview process, with particular thanks to Liz Ollier who facilitated the interviews with the volunteer team.

The volunteers contribution was extremely useful and much valued.

Robin is on the mend and will be rejoining us shortly.

He will return to the Trust in his new role as Bosun / RYA Trainer, and will have the newly built boat shed to use.

White Admiral.

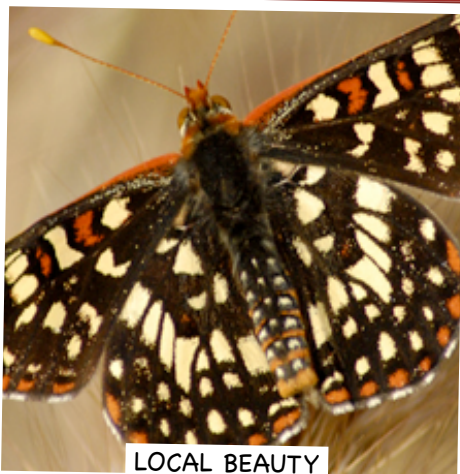

White Admiral is white again! Thanks to the sterling efforts of a squad of volunteers, White Admiral is looking very smart indeed. Hard work and real effort went in to turning her round in double quick time and she was back on the water carrying visitors and looking like a new boat.

As Mike Brackenbury, one of the team who worked on the boat said, "It makes you feel proud to drive it again."

Editors Note. We need good pictures and matters of interest. Telling prospective visitors about ourselves as well as keeping volunteers informed means the NANCY NEWS has to be fresh and worth looking at! Give us some help please.
