Water borne activities for disabled and disadvantaged people

DECEMBER 2014 NEWSLETTER

The first week of December was a brilliant one in terms of recognition of the work that the Trust has been doing for the past 30 years and continues to do today. On Monday the Norfolk and Suffolk Boating Association awarded the Trust the Martin Broom Trophy. This is the first time the Trophy has been awarded. This unusual trophy, a cabinet containing spoons won by Martin during his long sailing career, is for any individual, group of individuals or organisation that makes an outstanding contribution to Broads boating. Then on Friday we received a call from Kathryn Cook, the Director of the UK Association of National Park Authorities, to say that our volunteers had won the UK National Parks Volunteer Group of the Year award which includes a bursary of £1000 to further the work of our volunteers. The judges included Julia Bradbury and Helen Skelton who said, "Without these volunteers it is highly likely the visitors they help would not visit the outdoors. I have first-hand experience of such groups and I know how selfless, patient and kind volunteers at these types of groups can be. I have utter respect for them." What a great and well deserved end to our thirtieth year!

Merry Christmas!
